

For Immediate Release

A new Executive Director at the Chamber of Commerce Saint-Laurent Mont-Royal

Saint-Laurent, Quebec, February 27, 2023 – Pierre-Olivier Brunelle, President of the Chamber of Commerce and Industry of Saint-Laurent-Mont-Royal (CCSL-MR), is proud to announce to our members and partners the appointment of Cynthia Corriveau as Executive Director. She stepped into her new role on February 27, 2023.

Cynthia is joining us with an outstanding experience; specifically having worked for 22 years within a non-profit organization. She also has a marketing degree and is very passionate about everything marketing and connecting people. She will be working closely with her team, Fadia Hoteit and Fatima Jabrak, our devoted collaborators. We wish to extend a warm welcome to Cynthia to the Chamber. You will have the occasion to do the same in an upcoming activity.

We would like to thank Mrs. Joanne Vassiliou, President of Prestige HR, for her help and support in finding the perfect candidate for the position. A big thank you as well to Mr. Norman Chenail for holding the fort as Acting Director after Ms. Sylvie Séguin left her role of 37 years at the Chamber.

About the Chamber

Now in its 42nd year, the Chamber of Commerce and Industry Saint-Laurent-Mont-Royal is the place to be to meet other business people of the community. The Chamber is also acting as an advocate in everything that pertains to the economic development. She gathers, inform and defend the interests of its members while also being an active partner to the businesses within its community.

- 30 -

Renseignements :

Fatima Jabrak

Responsable des communications et du développement des affaires

Chambre de commerce et d'industrie de Saint-Laurent – Mont-Royal

514.333.5222 p. 226 – fatimaj@ccsl-mr.com